

Project Review Part 2: Code Review - Group 3

Code Criteria	Reviewed?	Need a change?	Who will change it?
Use proper and specific names when declaring variables	Yes	No	N/A
Align code correctly	Yes	No	N/A
Know how to explain the code	Yes	No	N/A
Maintainable code	Yes	No	N/A
Documentation Criteria
When creating documents for the project, grammar and spelling must be corrected for other group members to read and understand	Yes	No	N/A
Each document must have a heading of the section that the document is going to present	Yes	No	N/A
If there are changes to our project, at least one group member must update the document so the document will not have outdated information	Yes	Yes	Alex
Document must be in an order in which it flows from one topic to another	Yes	Yes	Teni
If a groupmate updates the document, the group member must communicate to the group and tell them what part of the document was updated. (Unless the group member was already assigned to that part of the document before updating).	Yes	Yes	All group members (There assigned section that they need to update.)
If there is a topic/section that is important to the documentation, the group member that is assigned to that topic must be detailed and add important information for the topic to	Yes	Yes	Brandon convey the information that is needed for that topic/section.

---	--	--	--